

The Rise of Women Artists and Gender Distribution in the Global Art Market, 2023-2024

These charts reveal a shifting art market where gender equity is advancing. Although men still dominate overall inquiries, women artists are gaining auction value, generational visibility, and regional influence, signaling a steady transformation toward greater inclusivity and recognition in the global art economy.

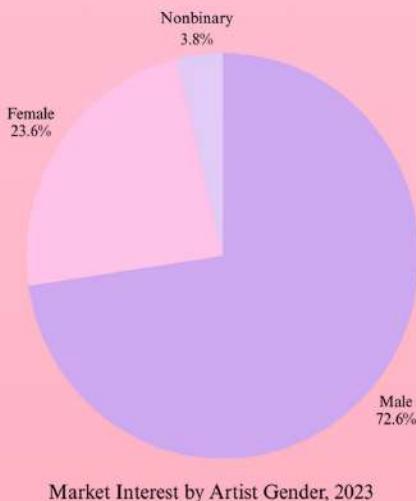

Top 5 Female Artists by Global Auction Sales (Artprice 2023)

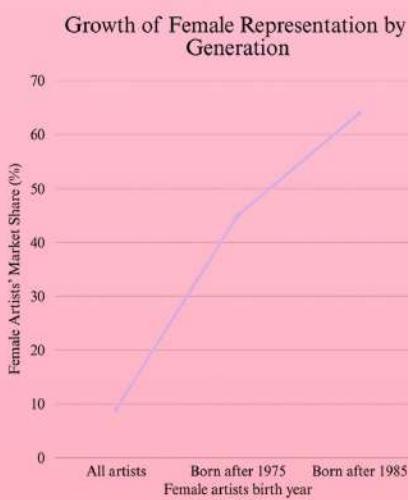

Top 5 Male Artists by Global Auction Sales (Artprice 2023)

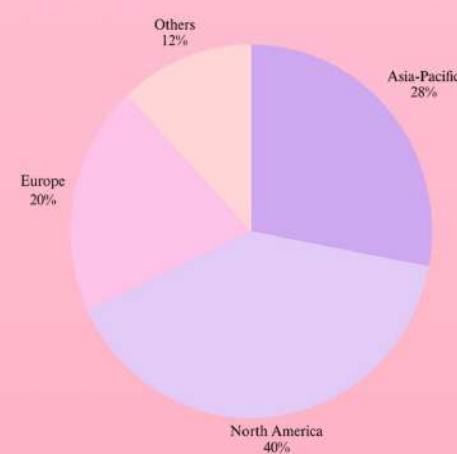

These charts show that in 2023, Yayoi Kusama and Joan Mitchell led female auction sales, while Picasso and Klimt dominated the male rankings, highlighting both women's growing market presence and the big value gap that still exists.

Male artists dominate inquiries with over 70%, while female and nonbinary artists remain underrepresented.

Female market share rises steadily, surpassing 60% among artists born after 1985, showing gender progress.

North America leads the market, followed by Asia-Pacific, while Europe and other regions hold comparable shares. Importantly, these figures represent each region's proportion of auction sales devoted to works by women artists.
